

sempre:

Society for Education, Music
and Psychology Research

THE UNIVERSITY OF HULL

Special Offers on Concerts for Conference Delegates

Friday 23 October 2009, 1.15pm

Jenni Molloy (double bass)
Stuart MacDonald (soprano & tenor saxophone)
Chris Sykes (drums)

Bach ReLoaded

Contemporary, classical, ambient jazz fusion. This is Bach revived and revamped, translated and transformed, compressed and ReLoaded. Music and Familiarity

Middleton Hall, University of Hull

FREE ENTRY TO CONFERENCE DELEGATES

Saturday 24 October 2009, 7.45 pm

Hull Chamber Music
Roderick Williams (baritone)
Susie Allan (piano)

“Williams’s rich tone is never forced ... he tunefully inhabits the poetry like a storyteller. ... [An] infectious ... exceptional voice ... poignant. His diction is perfect ...” The Times

The magnificent baritone Roderick Williams and fine pianist Susie Allan gave an unforgettable recital here three years ago, and return now with a programme to mark the 150th anniversary of the birth of the poet A. E. Housman. The concert includes settings by Bax, Butterworth, Ireland, Moeran, Somervell and others; and settings of other poets by Finzi, Ireland and Stanford. Music and Familiarity

Middleton Hall, University of Hull

REDUCED TICKET PRICE OF £12 FOR CONFERENCE
DELEGATES (£7 FOR STUDENTS)
(Tickets available on the door and by calling 01482 465631)